Market Update

Following recent strong trading and an expected strong December, A.P. Eagers Limited (ASX: APE) today announced that its net profit before tax for the year ending 31 December 2009 is expected to be within a range of $48 to $50 million. This has increased from the previously anticipated range of $42 to $45 million, as forecast on 14 October, and the company's 2008 result of $19.9 million.

This forecast remains subject to audit and the usual end of year accounting review of asset values.
